

Belgian

Categories: Objects

A large batch of extremely low quality cigarettes imported from Belgium by the Gettoverwaltung, encased in colorful packaging with frivolous names, all equally bad. They contained no trace of real tobacco.

Children used the colorful packets for making playing cards. These were eagerly traded. (vide Tobacco Department).

Oskar Singer

Resources

Encyclopedia, p. 29.

Tags

economy everyday life

Updated: 16-03-2026

Added: 07-07-2023