Berenstein Lew

Categories: Biographies

Born in 1906, in the Order Service since June 13, 1940; on October 1, 1941 directed as commissioner to the Upper Boot Making Department, which he has headed ever since and which he expanded into one of the largest establishments in the ghetto. Known as a man of a firm hand.

Before the war he lived at 42 11 listopada St. apt. 47. In the ghetto with his wife Golda (b. 1903) and son Bronislaw (b. 1942), they lived first at 20 Lesna Street and 7/18 Bazarowa Street, and from April 1942 at 100/1 Marysińska Street.

Tags

Jewish administration economy production

Updated: 07-11-2026

Added: 15-04-2025