

Red House

Categories: Locations

Yid. Roytes Hayzl. Building that housed the German Criminal Police (Kripo) station in the ghetto. It was situated opposite St. Mary's Church, the main church in the Jewish residential district. A single-story building in simple red-brick gothic style that originally served as the presbytery of St. Mary's Church.

Oskar Rosenfeld

Resources

Encyclopedia, s. 179.

Tags

German administration | looting of property

Updated: 16-03-2026

Added: 12-08-2023